

English

1. Persuasive speeches:
 - Text analysis of speeches.
 - Speaking and listening
 - Consider and evaluate different viewpoints, attending to and building on the contributions of others.
2. Discussion texts:
 - Creating balanced arguments.
 - Writing in an impersonal, formal tone.

Y6 Summer 2

Early Islamic Civilization

Art

- Create their own poster or presentation about geometric patterns in the Early Islamic civilisation.
- Create a tile with a geometric pattern.

Geography & History

- Understand the importance of Baghdad during the Early Islamic Civilization.
- Identify which countries were part of the Early Islamic Civilization.
- Explain the impacts of the first four caliphs during the Early Islamic Civilization.
- Explain why the House of Wisdom was a focal part of the Early Islamic Civilization.

Maths

- Solve a range of problems using all four operations.
- Solve problems involving measure (money, mass, capacity).
- Solve problems involving geometry (symmetry, rotation, translation and reflection).
- Solve problems involving statistics (line graphs, bar graphs and pie charts).
- Compose and solve algebraic problems and formulae.

Science: Working scientifically

- Investigate and explore how changing 1 variable can alter another
- Investigate and explore scientific evidence has been used to support or contradict ideas or arguments
- Consider and explain what sources of information can be used to answer questions either first-hand or a range of sources
- Present findings from investigations in oral or written form such as presentations
- Use appropriate language and scientific knowledge to support any conclusions