A massive thank you to everyone who supported the Oasis Afghan appeal by donating £1 and wearing non-school uniform. I am delighted to announce that we have raised just over £400! That is a brilliant amount and it will go a very long way to helping those who need it most! Thank you all so much once again.

This week some of year 6 children visited King Edwards School for Boys to meet a published author, poet and rap artist called Karl Nova. He shared with them his work and talked about his journey to becoming a published poet. All the children had a wonderful time and behaved impeccably, representing our academy with pride.

A reminder that next Friday 22nd October is our last day of term and a staff training day, therefore the academy will be closed to pupils. We will return for the second half of Autumn term on Monday 1st November.

Have a great weekend everyone...Mr P. Jones (Deputy Principal)
